CONFERENCE SCOPE & THEMES

EiWR2019 brings together professors, researchers, and students from multiple areas of scholarship to present, analyze and discuss contemporary intellectual and practical topics relating to the nature and dynamics of the afterlife in world theologies, and its implications for human individual and society. We aim to provide a forum for interreligious encounter, interdisciplinary discussion, and academic dialogue over common concerns and questions, and to create new opportunities for future research and teaching cooperation. This conference has been conceptualized and organized by Mashhad Seminary, as one of the renowned institutions for religious education in the Islamic world. EiWR2019 has also attracted the positive contribution and collaboration from a number of Iranian academies as well as international universities and global academic institutions for the study of religion and theology. These include also preliminary sessions on selected topics and themes of the conference. We warmly welcome multidisciplinary perspectives towards our main themes, including but not limited to

Islamic Theology
Systematic Theology
Law and Ethics
Biblical Studies

Comparative Theology
Practical Theology
Philosophy of Religion
The Qur'an and Hadith

Deadline for abstract submission: December 20, 2018

Submissions and inquiries via theology.um@gmail.com
