Program

Section 1
Room L1.201

Chair: Linda Kaplan

10.00 Amanda Achtmann, The John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland:
Personal Responsibility: A Common Basis for Affirming the World in Thought and Action

10.45 Mery Castillo, La Salle University, Colombia:
Think and Act as Moral Hermeneutic Exercise: A commitment to the Construction of Political Space and Public

11.30 Dr. Dietrich Schotte, Philipps-University Marburg, Germany:
Suffering and Social Order. Critical Remarks on Arendt's Concept of Violence Ontology is Social.

12.15 Lunch Break

Chair: Maria Robaszkiewicz

13.00 Hannah Holme, University of Leipzig, Germany:
Hanna Arendt's Way of Doing and Criticizing Philosophy by Storytelling

13.45 Alina Vaisfeld & P.J. Gorre, New School for Social Research, NYC, USA:
Husserl, Stein, and Arendt: Phenomenology as Political Thought

14.30 Anna Magdalena Schaupp, University of Koblenz-Landau, Germany
Ontology is Social: How Hannah Arendt Solves a Wittgensteinian Problem.

15.15 Coffee Break

Chair: Markus Wierschem

15.45 Dr. Sara Cohen Shabot, University of Haifa, Israel:
Making Loud Bodies 'Feminine': An Analysis of Obstetric Violence through Iris Marion Young's Phenomenology

16.30 Marie-Anne Casselot, Laval University, Québec, Canada:
Topographical Feminism?

17.15 Dr. Maria Robaszkiewicz, Paderborn University, Germany:
Women as zoa politika, or: Why there Could Never be a Women's Party? An Arendtian-inspired Phenomenology of a Female Political Subject
Section 2
Room L1.202

Chair: Julia Mühl

10.30 Manuela Massa, Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg, Germany:
The Reinstatement of the Phenomenon. Hedwig Conrad Martius and the Meaning of ‘Being’

11.15 Martina Galvani, University of Turin, Italy:
The Role of Intellectual into the Social Organism. Edith Stein's Analyses, Between Social Ontology and Philosophical Anthropology

12.00 Lunch Break

Chair: Prof. Sebastian Luft

13.00 Dr. William Tullius, Gonzaga University, Spokane, USA:
Edith Stein on Social Ontology and the Constitution of Individual Moral Identity

13.45 Alice Togni, University of Salento, Italy/Paris-Sorbonne University, France:
Starting from Husserl: Gemeinschaftsleben According to Edith Stein

14.30 Gerhard Thonhauser, University of Vienna, Austria:
Groups and Collectives. Satre and Stein on Collective Emotions and Action

15.15 Coffee Break

Chair: Julia Lerius

15.45 Anna Piazza, Max-Weber-Kolleg, University of Erfurt, Germany:
Gerda Walther Between the Phenomenology of Mystics and the Ontology of Communities

16.30 Dr. Thomas Vongehr, KU Leuven, Belgium:
On the Community with God. Gerda Walther's 'Phänomenologie der Mystik'

17.15 Julia Mühl, Paderborn University, Germany:
The Meaning of Individuals Within Communities. Gerda Walther and Edith Stein on the Constitution of Social Communities.

18.00 End of the Conference

19.00 Conference Dinner, Kö13